Holiday Events Scheduled for This Week as Year’s End Nears

A number of holiday events are scheduled for the coming week as the semester and 2013 are wrapping up.

The 2013 President’s Holiday Reception will be held on Thursday, December 12. It will be held in the Theater Lobby, from 9:30-11 a.m.

‘Lost in Yonkers’ Cast Awarded Meritorious Achievement Honor from Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival

The cast of “Lost in Yonkers” have been awarded the Meritorious Achievement Award for “Ensemble” by the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival, Region VIII.

In addition to the honor for the full cast of the Pulitzer Prize winning Neil Simon play, Director Mark Majarian noted that two students are nominees for competition at the Kennedy Center American College Theater, Region VIII festival. Festival XLVI takes place at the Los Angeles Theatre Center February 12-15, 2014.

The two students are: Caitlin Miller, who performed the role of Bella, and is nominated for the Irene Ryan Competition at the festival; and Nicky Jara, who is nominated for the regional design finals and competition.

“Lost in Yonkers” was performed in the Cypress College Studio Theater last month.

Scholarship Applications Now Available

The annual scholarship application process is underway, with applications in the Foundation Office, Financial Aid, and online. There are two separate applications: one for all scholarships administered through the Cypress College Foundation and another for the Bernard Osher Foundation scholarship. The forms are linked on the front page of the campus website and on social media. Foundation scholarships are due February 19. The Osher is awarded based on financial need on a first-submitted basis.

LRC Hours Extended for Finals

In response to a request from Associated Students and to help students prepare for the end of the semester, especially final exams, the Learning Resource Center’s hours of service have been extended through Thursday, December 12.

Most notable, the LRC is open until 11 p.m. on week nights through next Thursday, and Friday hours for today have been extended until 5 p.m. The new library hours are: Monday-Thursday, 8 a.m.-11 p.m., and Friday (Dec. 6), 8 a.m.-5 p.m.
Cypress College hosted its 9th Annual Kwanzaa Celebration on Thursday, December 5, 2013, in the campus’ Gym II foyer. The event drew attendance about 150 students, faculty and other college employees. Keynote speaker Chimbuko Tembo, the Associate Director of Los Angeles Cultural Center, spoke to the theme “Unity Through Diversity and Inclusiveness.” The event is sponsored by Cypress College’s Diversity Committee. What is the Innovation Fund?

The NOCCCD Innovation Fund is designed to support proposals that cultivate a climate of innovation and creativity. Proposals supported by this endeavor will complement the District’s Vision and Mission Statements and Strategic Directions, and initiatives may range in focus from primary classroom support, to student success or research, or any function of the District. The Fund is designed to support new ideas, methods or practices to promote excellence in all aspects of the NOCCCD.

Who Should/Can Apply?

All permanent employees of the NOCCCD who require primary or supplemental funding to support an innovative initiative or project are encouraged to apply for funding from the NOCCCD Innovation Fund. Application submission begins December 1, 2013, through March 1, 2014, for projects commencing the following academic year.

Where can I get more information about the Innovation fund?
