1/31/18

Whereas, the Academic Senate has a fundamental role in the faculty recruitment, hiring and retention process, which is significantly impacted by salary and benefits comparability that can result in detrimental consequences for program development and sustainability;

Whereas, in 2013 the North Orange County Community College District (NOCCCD) and United Faculty (UF) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) agreeing to “assess and address the relative ranking of Unit Member compensation at the 75th percentile,” including both salary and benefits;

Whereas, the 2015 “Total Compensation Study” commissioned by the District demonstrated that NOCCCD full-time faculty total compensation was substantially “below the median” of the twelve comparable districts, and since 2015, full-time faculty salary and benefit compensation has not moved towards the 75th percentile but has remained static or declined for salary and remains below bottom for benefits of the agreed upon twelve comparable districts; and

Whereas, each of the comparable districts provide dependent health care coverage regardless of fringe benefits, while the NOCCCD salary and dependent care coverage cost structure creates a divided compensation system that lacks transparency and disadvantages a specific group of current and potential full-time faculty, thereby compromising the future of faculty recruitment, hiring, and retention;

Resolved, That the Cypress College Academic Senate urges that the NOCCCD Board of Trustees, the NOCCCD Chancellor, and United Faculty address the failure to honor the signed MOU agreeing to “assess and address” the salary ranking of NOCCCD full-time faculty into the 75th percentile;

Resolved, That the Cypress College Academic Senate urges that the NOCCCD Board of Trustees, the NOCCCD Chancellor, and United Faculty address the lack of transparency regarding unequal compensation based on dependent health care coverage; and

Resolved, That the Cypress College Academic Senate urges that the NOCCCD Board of Trustees, the NOCCCD Chancellor, and United Faculty address these critical issues as an immediate priority in order to protect our current and future ability to recruit, hire, and retain highly qualified full-time faculty.
