Co-Producer of ‘Outfoxed’ On Campus for Viewing of Documentary

► Film screening is set for Monday, September 13, sponsored by Philosophy and Religious Studies along with the Journalism Department.

The Philosophy and Religious Studies Department along with the Journalism Department are sponsoring the film screening of “Outfoxed: Rupert Murdoch’s War on Journalism” with a Q-and-A session with co-producer, Jim Gilliam, following the documentary.

“Outfoxed” explores the issue of media bias regarding social and political matters and its impact on society. Media experts, including Jeff Cohen (Fairness and Accuracy In Reporting), Bob McChesney (Free Press), Chellie Pingree (Common Cause), Jeff Chester (Center for Digital Democracy) and David Brock (Media Matters) provide context in the in-depth look at media mogul Rupert Murdoch and Fox News.

The film also features former Fox News employees, including producers, reporters, bookers and writers who recount the pressures of imposing a “right-wing” point of view or risk losing their jobs.

The screening will be held on September 13, from 3-5 p.m., in H-131.

Gilliam is a former dot-com executive turned activist filmmaker. In the wake of 9/11, Gilliam left his position as chief technology officer of high-profile startup Business.com and devoted his time to more pressing matters.

Through MoveOn.org, in 2003, he collaborated with veteran filmmaker Robert Greenwald to research and help produce the groundbreaking documentary, “Uncovered: The War on Iraq,” about the faulty intelligence that led the U.S. to war.

Bringing together the world of film, politics, and the Internet, “Uncovered” defined a new generation of films — the grassroots political documentary. Gilliam then co-produced Greenwald’s next film, “Outfoxed: Rupert Murdoch’s War on Journalism,” an unprecedented look at the propaganda techniques employed by FOX

News.

All are welcome to the screening and there is no admission fee. Rear access to the auditorium will close at 3:05 p.m.

I Didn't Know That!

The look of the CypressCollege.edu Web site was refreshed just a bit during the summer. The links for the Online application, WebStar and the class schedule are now at the very top of the page (instead of the bottom). The change was based on feedback about making those items easier to find. These icons now appear on each page of the college Web site that has been designed within the standard look. If you don't see the new graphics yet, reload this page from your browser's toolbar (you may need to “clear the cache” in Explorer or Netscape since they archive old icons).

Student Learning Outcomes Dialogues

A series of dialogues will be held to identify definitions and processes for establishing and measuring student learning outcomes for individual courses and programs. All faculty members, classified staff, administrators, and students are invited to participate in the dialogues. The first meeting will be on Wednesday, September 8, from 3-5 p.m. in the Wilson Conference Room. Facilitating the dialogues will be Dr. Randy Martinez, Nancy Deutsch, and Dr. Heather Brown.

CHARGERS

The retirement of Sue (Reichart) Sever, Court Reporting Instructor, was recognized at the August 24 board meeting.

Baseball coach Scott Pickler led the Yarmouth–Dennis (Mass.) Red Sox to the 2004 Cape League Championship. The Red Sox defeated the Falmouth Commodores, 8–4 in 11 innings on August 14 in the Cape Cod Baseball League’s title game.

This is Scott’s first championship during his seven-year tenure as field manager of the Y–D Red Sox.

The Cape Cod Baseball League is the nation’s oldest, most successful amateur baseball league. It aims to foster the careers of top prospects in the nation.

Seven former Cypress College women’s soccer players have signed with four-year schools: Renee Haynes, Cal State Dominguez Hills; Katie Roche, Cal State Dominguez Hills; Brooke Johns, University of Hartford (CT); Cynthia Pinkney, San Jose State (CA); Andrea Serrano, Menlo Park College (CA); Michele Chapman, Ottawa University (KS); and Nataly Clavel, University of LaVerne (CA).

Information Table Serves Nearly 2,000 Students to Start Semester

Close to 2,000 students were assisted in the 10 days that the information table was set up to help guide students. Over 700 students approached the Information table in the first two days of the semester.

Due to the huge success of this much-needed service, the information booth will be set up again in January prior to the start of the spring semester.

“I know that the students we helped appreciated the fact that we were there,” said Dr. Lewis. “There’s no telling how many students we ‘saved’ because we were able to provide them with good information or just make them feel welcome.”

The table was run by Jorge Ramirez, dean of Student Support Services, on behalf of the 5% MORE Committee.

A report on Cypress College's Construction Projects

After a significant delay, the “Construction Updates” section of the college Web site has been updated with new content and valuable information. The change comes as students are developing a growing interest in the projects.

With that in mind, brief descriptions of the various construction projects have been added to the section’s main page. Links are available to areas with additional information.

The Opening Day construction video “Extreme Makeover: Campus Edition” has been added under the “Galleries” heading on the page, along with four photo slide shows. More photographs will be added as the images are taken and processed for the Web.

Finally, the “Construction Updates” section includes the campus closure maps that have been circulated and posted with the start of school.

Look for new content under the “Construction Updates” icon on a regular basis.

BRIEFLY

A reception honoring new managers and newly tenured faculty will be held on Tuesday, September 7, from 2:30 to 4 p.m. in the Culinary Arts dining room. Refreshments will be served.

Honorees include: new managers – Regina Ford, Nina DeMarkey and Jose Recinos; newly tenured faculty members – Virgil Adams, Kathy Alvarez, Lisa Clark, Cherie Dickey, Christie Diep, Sharon Easton, Jean England, Richard Fee, Michael Flores, Robert Grantham, David Halahmy, Elizabeth Hamman, Sarah Jones, Barbara Kashi, Kathleen McAlister, David Nussbaum, Fola Odeunmi, John Payne, Kathleen Reiland, Doug Sallade, Renee Ssensalo, Wendy Valencia, Amy Vega-Pritchett, Denise Vo, and Nancy Welliver.

The Budget & Planning Committee has allocated $10,000 for funding requests for conference registration for the 2004-2005 year. This is $5,000 more than last year, which will provide monies for more employees to attend area conferences and workshops, although it is not enough to cover transportation and accommodations for out-of-town or out-of-state conferences. The deadline to submit requests is Monday, September 13, by 4 p.m.

Cypress College Academic Senate meetings are open to all who wish to attend. The meetings are the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM in the Wilson Conference Room.

YOU ARE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE Fall 2004
Student Learning Outcomes (SLO) Dialogue Group on Wednesdays from 3 pm to 5 pm

Last year, a group of Cypress College faculty members, classified staff, and administrators participated in an on-going dialogue to identify common Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILOs), or a common scope of requirements, of those students leaving Cypress College with a vocational certificate and/or an Associate Degree in Liberal Arts, Occupational Studies, or General Studies, or students transferring with general education certification. By May 2004, the Academic Senate had approved the ILO document, and the President's Advisory Cabinet adopted the ILOs.

This fall, all members of the college community, including students, are invited to participate in a series of dialogues to identify definitions and processes for establishing and measuring student learning outcomes for individual courses and programs. While the maximum benefit is gained if participants can attend all of the dialogues, it is not mandatory that they do so.

Faculty members are strongly encouraged to participate actively in these dialogues. It is imperative that the SLO development process is faculty-driven, and the establishment and measurement of SLOs reflect the academic culture of our college. (Flex credit or ½ equivalent unit credit toward advancement on pay scale for every 10 hours of participation is available.)

Facilitating the dialogue will be Dr. Randy Martinez, Psychology Department; Nancy Deutsch, English/Reading Department and Staff Development Coordinator; and Dr. Heather Brown, Director of Institutional Research. All three participated in the ILO dialogue, have attended numerous conferences on student learning, and collectively conducted an extensive review of the literature on the assessment of student learning.

* How to Measure SLOs: Types of Indicators of Effectiveness, Measuring SLOs, Examples of SLO's at other colleges, Creating SLOs for Specific Departments, Technical Assessment Questions: Who are we measuring? (What group or cohort or all?) How often are we measuring? etc. Exact order of discussion will be determined as dialogue progresses.

Tutoring Begins Tuesday, September 7th

Writing assistance is available for all Cypress College students in the Writing Center.

English graduate students from neighboring universities provide tutoring.

Tutors are available Monday-Thursday from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m., and Friday from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

The tutorial service is free!

Students can sign up for an appointment in the Writing Center-H324, or call 484-7183 to schedule an appointment.

*Come by the Writing Center to pick up a brochure!

Q & A with the Co-Producer, Jim Gilliam following

Jim Gilliam is a former dot com executive turned activist filmmaker. In the wake of 9/11, Gilliam left his position as chief technology officer of high-profile startup Business.com and devoted his time to more pressing matters. Through MoveOn.org, in 2003, he hooked up with veteran filmmaker Robert Greenwald to research and help produce the groundbreaking documentary, "Uncovered: The War on Iraq" about the faulty intelligence that led the U.S. to war. Bringing together the world of film, politics, and the internet, "Uncovered" defined a new generation of films — the grassroots political documentary. Gilliam then co-produced Greenwald's next film, "Outfoxed: Rupert Murdoch's War on Journalism," an unprecedented look at the propaganda techniques employed by FOX News.

THIS WEEK IN THE CAPE LEAGUE

Championship Week

Red Sox Crowned Champions in Thrilling Finale

FALMOUTH – You want drama?

All too often, lopsided games render championships anticlimactic. The result is obvious early in the game, and the rest of the contest serves as nothing more than a coronation for the winner. And if that's what you wanted, you had no place at Guv Fuller Field on Saturday.

But if you wanted timely hits, clutch defense and fearless pitching, if you wanted passion in the dugouts and in the stands, if you wanted arguably the greatest game in the history of the Cape Cod Baseball League, the 11-inning battle between Yarmouth-Dennis and Falmouth couldn't have been more magical.

In the end, the Red Sox emerged as champions for the first time in Scott Pickler's tenure as field manager. They scored four runs in the top of the 11th inning to win the Cape League's longest season-ending game since Wareham beat Brewster in 13 innings in 1994.

"To win a big game like that, and there were some crazy moments in that game, it feels great to finally win it," said third baseman Adam Davis (Florida).

The teams traded a pair of single runs early. Falmouth's Danny Perales (Southern California) hit a sacrifice fly in the bottom of the first, and Y-D's Ryan Rohlinger (Oklahoma) scored on a balk in the top of the second. Commodore designated hitter Paul Christian (Brown) hit a solo home run in the bottom of the second, and Red Sox center fielder Ramon Glasgow (Cosumnes River) doubled home Ben Crabtree (Ohio) in the top of the fourth.

The story early, though, was the heroic effort of Falmouth starter Jensen Lewis (Vanderbilt). Pitching on three days' rest, Lewis held the Red Sox at bay for 6 1/3 innings, allowing one earned run while striking out 12.

His biggest jam came in the third inning, when an error allowed Y-D to load the bases with just one out. But Lewis came back with six straight strikes to the next two hitters and struck his way out of the inning.

“What a gutty effort by Jensen Lewis,” Pickler said. “I thought he was outstanding.”

The Commodores gave Lewis plenty of support in the bottom of the fourth. First baseman Mark Hamilton (Tulane) and shortstop Chris Lewis (Stanford) each connected for solo home runs to center field, and Falmouth went ahead, 4-2.

That lead held until the top of the ninth.

Davis, Joe Anthonson (Campbell) and Will Harris (Louisiana State) each drew walks to begin the inning. Frank Curreri (UMass) took a ball and a strike, fouled off the next pitch, and then hit a seeing-eye ground ball up the middle and through for a game-tying two-run single.

Falmouth went quietly in the bottom of the ninth, and the game went to extra innings with the score tied at 4.

The Commodores had their best chance to send the series to a third game in the home half of the 10th inning. Catcher Barry Gunther (Mississippi) hit a one-out double, and Kevin Roberts (Houston) moved him to third with a ground ball to first. The Red Sox opted to intentionally walk Jacob Ellsbury (Oregon State) and face Matt Antonelli (Wake Forest), but Antonelli worked a walk of his own to load the bases.

Josh Faiola (Dartmouth) induced a pop fly in the infield, but with two outs, Perales hit a sinking line drive to right field with game-winning single written all over it.

Enter Jim Rapaport. The Stanford outfielder sprinted in and dove headlong for the ball, and it found its way into his glove to end the threat.

The Red Sox finally broke through in the top of the 11th inning. Anthonson drew his second walk of the game, and pinch-hitter P.J. Finigan (Southern Illinois) beat out an infield single to give Yarmouth-Dennis two critical base-runners with no outs.

Curreri, he of the clutch single in his previous at-bat, laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt to advance Anthonson and Finigan to third and second, respectively.

The Commodores decided to walk the hot-hitting Rohlinger to load the bases, but the first pitch from pitcher Kyle Young (Wake Forest) sailed to the backstop and allowed Anthonson to score the go-ahead run.

Rohlinger then executed a textbook squeeze to score Finigan and extend the lead to two runs. And after a single to right by Rapaport, Nick Moresi (Fresno State) stroked a long home run to left field to put the game out of reach at 8-4.

All that remained was for reliever Brett Harker (College of Charleston) – who turned in the third strong relief outing of the night from the Red Sox bullpen – to close the door on the Commodores.

“Faiola went as long as he could, and then Harker came in, and (Cory) VanAllen was great,” Davis said. “He’s been great all year.”

League officials named Rohlinger, whose eighth-inning home run provided the margin of victory on Friday, and Faiola, who earned a win and two saves in the playoffs, co-winners of the playoffs’ Most Valuable Player award.

“These kids deserve this, as hard as they’ve played all year,” Pickler said. “Finigan comes off the bench right there and gets a big hit, Faiola closes the door, Rapaport makes a great catch. It just goes on and on.”
