2008 Summer Class Schedule Arrives on Campus Website

The downloadable file is now available at CypressCollege.edu and a printed version is expected to arrive on campus next week.

The Cypress College Summer 2008 Schedule is now available for download from the college’s website at http://www.CypressCollege.edu/schedule.php.

The complete schedule (a 2.4 mb file) includes a full listing of classes offered for four different start dates during the summer.

Classes Begin:
• May 27, 2008;
• June 2, 2008;
• June 23, 2008; and
• July 7, 2008.

New this summer, Cypress College has scheduled a group of classes in the Language Arts Division that are designed for recent high school graduates. These courses begin the week of June 28 and run for 5 weeks — so there's still time for a vacation before the fall semester starts.

Availability of the class schedule has been posted on the front page of the campus website and in the campus headlines section of “mygateway.” It is also linked from the schedule page, which in turn is linked off of the front page.

Messages will be sent to all students via mygateway in the coming days, and an e-mail newsletter highlighting the availability will be distributed next week.

Physical copies of the schedule are also expected to arrive on campus in the next week.

Unlawful Discrimination Training Required

Mandatory training sessions for Unlawful Discrimination for Managers and Coordinators have been scheduled. This two-hour training program is required by California law every two years for all regular and temporary District managers, classified coordinators and confidential executive assistants. Faculty coordinators and classified staff who perform a lead role in assigning work to hourly employees are encouraged to attend.

Sessions are: Wednesday, April 16, 1:30-3:30 p.m.; Thursday, May 15, 9:30-11:30 a.m.; Tuesday, June 3, 1:30-3:30 p.m. Each takes place at the Anaheim Campus, in Room 105. If you have any questions please contact Steve Duncan, ext. 84818, or Cindy Vyskocil, ext. 27720.

April 26 is Deadline to Drop with a ‘W’

Saturday, April 26, is the deadline date to drop students and have them receive a “W” for semester length classes. Students who are not dropped by the deadline must be issued a grade for all courses in which they remain enrolled.

Faculty should check their class listing in the Class Schedule or on the roster for the deadline date of classes that are open entry, short-term and late-start.

For the convenience of our students and staff, Webstar are now available 24/7 through the “mygateway” portal.
SLO Management Software Potential Vendors to Make Presentations

After a thorough evaluation of the existing SLO Management software packages, the SLO Committee has selected four potential vendors to come on campus and present their software to all faculty/staff/administrators.

This is a crucial step in the SLO process and the SLO committee wants to make sure there is wide input to finalize the software-selection process.

The schedules for presentations are as follows:

- Wednesday April 16th 3 to 4 pm - Library - TracDat:
- Wednesday April 16th 4 to 5 pm - Library - TLC — eLumen:
- Wednesday April 23rd 3 to 4 pm - Library - TLC — CurriCunet:
- Wednesday April 23rd 4 to 5 pm - Library - TLC — TK20.

Language Arts Scholarship Booksale Set for April 23-May 1 in HUM

The Language Arts Booksale is scheduled for April 28 through May 1 in the Humanities Building, 2nd Floor Language Arts lobby, from 8 a.m.-2 p.m. each day. The sale is a long-standing tradition that is utilized by the Language Arts Division in order to raise money for student scholarships. All proceeds from the booksale make it possible to award scholarships to deserving students each year.

If you would like to donate any gently used books, textbooks less that 3 years old or DVD’s please send them to the Language Arts Division or contact Kathryn Sonne for pick up. The event relies each year on generous donations from the campus community.

This year the booksale is being student-run as a Service Learning project by the Honors Program. Please help support this worthy scholarship effort!

Photography Department’s Cliff Lester Exhibits ‘A Celebration of Life’

The “A Celebration of Life” photo exhibition is Photography Instructor Clifford Lester’s photographic journey of faith and passion.

The exhibit runs through May 10 in the Cypress College Photography Gallery.

Lester, an assistant professor of photography at Cypress College, visited the Chassidic Jewish communities of Los Angeles, New York and Israel to compose the work, which provides an inside view into their very interesting lives.

The Cypress College Photography Gallery is located on the second floor of the Tech Ed 1 Building.

‘Gypsy’ in Campus Theater; Patrons Host Dinner Event on April 19

The Cypress College Patrons of the Arts annual spring dinner theater features the campus production of “Gypsy” on Saturday, April 19. Dinner in the Cypress College Fine Arts Lobby at 6 p.m., and the show begins at 8 p.m. in the Campus Theater.

Gypsy is a musical fable of a stage mother and her dreams of stardom for her two daughters. It is suggested by the memoirs of Gypsy Rose Lee. This production is set apart from all the rest by the innovative direction and stylized choreography of Broadway veteran Tom Pardoe with musical direction by Kent Helwig.

Tickets are $35 per person and include: dinner, desserts, beverages, parking, and admission. The Last day to order tickets is Friday, April 11, by 7:00 p.m.

All proceeds go to Fine Arts Scholarships for Art, Dance, Journalism, Music, Photography, and Theater students. Your donation is tax deductible. This event is catered by Paris (formerly of Food for Thought).

Please contact the Patrons of the Arts at (714) 337-2880.

Curricunet Pre-launch Schedule

Note: Courses moving through the approval process will stop May 23, 2008 and resume August 15, 2008.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS:

- Before you begin your curriculum process, contact Terry at 484-7329 to see if the course(s) has been cleaned up.
- All courses that have “same as” courses must be in CurricUNET or your course will not be moved forward until both courses appear in the system.
- All new and revised courses need to meet the established class size guidelines. If class size does not meet the guidelines a justification must be provided explaining why it is different.
- Priority will be given to UC-TCA, CSU GE, and/or IGETC course submittals during the fall curriculum review cycle. Due to specific deadlines required by UC and CSU, it is critical for these submittals to be pre-launched in spring 2008. Faculty are strongly encouraged to pre-launch their proposals between the April 1 - May 22, 2008 time frame. Please consult with the Articulation Officer, Stacey Howard at extension 47025, prior to pre-launching your course.
- Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) will be required for all new and revised courses being submitted for curriculum approval.
